YOUR RAVENS. ANY TIME. ANYWHERE. ANY DEVICE.

BALTIMORERAVENS.COM/STAY-CONNECTED

RAVENS FLOCK,

We hope you and your family are safe and healthy during this unprecedented year. For all of you working on the front lines as healthcare workers, first responders or as other essential employees, the Ravens organization salutes the incredibly important service you're providing our community.

The 2020 NFL season is upon us, and we'd like to thank you for your continued support of our team, our city and our state.

As you know, there are still many uncertainties ahead. While we continue working toward the possibility of hosting a limited number of fans at M&T Bank Stadium later this season, our most important goal is keeping our community safe. Certainly, we will be together again, but until then, please take care of yourselves and loved ones as you cheer us on from afar.

Again, thank you for your dedication, for your love of football and for everything you're doing to positively impact our community.

GO RAVENS!

If you have risk factors like heart disease or diabetes and raised triglycerides (≥ 150 mg/dL)
Ask your doctor about game-changing heart
protection from VASCEPA

the future is getting clearer

INDICATION AND IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

WHAT IS VASCEPA?

VASCEPA is a prescription medicine used:

- along with certain medicines (statins) to reduce the risk of heart attack, stroke and certain types of heart issues requiring hospitalization in adults with heart (cardiovascular) disease, or diabetes and 2 or more additional risk factors for heart disease.
- along with a low-fat and low-cholesterol diet to lower high levels of triglycerides (fats) in adults.

It is not known if VASCEPA changes your risk of having inflammation of your pancreas (pancreatitis).

It is not known if VASCEPA is safe and effective in children.

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

WHO SHOULD NOT TAKE VASCEPA?

- Do not take VASCEPA if you are allergic to icosapent ethyl or any of the ingredients in VASCEPA.

WHAT ARE THE POSSIBLE SIDE EFFECTS OF VASCEPA?

VASCEPA may cause serious side effects, including:

- Heart rhythm problems (atrial fibrillation and atrial flutter). Heart rhythm problems which can be serious and cause hospitalization have happened in people who take VASCEPA, especially in people who have heart (cardiovascular) disease or diabetes with a risk factor for heart (cardiovascular) disease, or who have had heart rhythm problems in the past. Tell your doctor if you get any symptoms of heart rhythm problems such as feeling as if your heart is beating fast and irregular, lightheadedness, dizziness, shortness of breath, chest discomfort or you faint.
- Possible allergic reactions if you are allergic to fish or shellfish. Stop taking VASCEPA and tell your doctor right away or get emergency medical help if you have any signs or symptoms of an allergic reaction.
- Bleeding. Serious bleeding can happen in people who take VASCEPA. Your risk of bleeding may increase if you are also taking a blood thinner medicine.

Celebrate 25% risk reduction with VASCEPA® when added to a statin*

In a study, patients treated with VASCEPA had fewer cardiovascular events (17.2%) compared to those who took placebo (22%).

Taking statins, exercising, and eating right can lower your risk of a heart attack or stroke, but not as much as you may think. Prescription VASCEPA can also reduce your risk.

VASCEPA is clinically proven to offer 25% less risk from heart attack and stroke when added to a statin.

Ask your doctor about VASCEPA today.

If you have liver problems and are taking VASCEPA, your doctor should do blood tests during treatment.

The most common side effects of VASCEPA include:

- Muscle and joint pain
- Swelling of the hands, legs, or feet
- Constipation
- Gout
- Heart rhythm problems (atrial fibrillation)

These are not all the possible side effects of VASCEPA. Call your doctor for medical advice about side effects.

You may report adverse events (i.e. side effects) or product complaints by calling 1-855-VASCEPA (1-855-827-2372), emailing AmarinMI@druginfo.com, or calling the FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088.

Tell your doctor if you take medicines that affect your blood clotting (anticoagulants or blood thinners).

Please see next page for Patient Information or call 1-855-VASCEPA (1-855-827-2372).

Commercially insured patients can pay as little as $9 for a 90-day supply!†

Subject to availability. Restrictions apply.
VASCEPA is covered without restriction for the majority of patients.

Not for use by VT residents, VT licensed medical professionals, patients under 18, where prohibited by law or patient's insurance plan, or where taxed or restricted. Maximum savings of $150 per month or $450 per 90 day supply. Eligible patients include those who participate in commercial insurance, through a healthcare exchange, or pay cash. Offer good through December 31, 2020.

Vascepa®
(icosapent ethyl)

PATIENT INFORMATION

VASCEPA® (pronounced vas-EE-puh) (icosapent ethyl) capsules

What is VASCEPA?

VASCEPA is a prescription medicine used along with certain medicines (statins) to reduce the risk of heart attack, stroke, and certain types of heart issues requiring hospitalization in adults with heart (cardiovascular) disease, or diabetes and 2 or more additional risk factors for heart disease. It's also used along with a low-fat and low-cholesterol diet to lower high levels of triglycerides (fats) in adults.

It is not known if VASCEPA changes your risk of having inflammation of your pancreas (pancreatitis).

It is not known if VASCEPA is safe and effective in children.

Do not take VASCEPA if you are allergic to icosapent ethyl or any of the ingredients in VASCEPA. See the end of this summary for a complete list of ingredients in VASCEPA.

Before taking VASCEPA, tell your doctor about all of your medical conditions, including if you:

- have diabetes.
- have a low thyroid problem (hypothyroidism).
- have a liver problem.
- have a pancreas problem.
- are allergic to fish or shellfish. It is not known if people who are allergic to fish or shellfish are also allergic to VASCEPA.
- are pregnant, or planning to become pregnant. It is not known if VASCEPA will harm your unborn baby.
- are breastfeeding or plan to breastfeed. VASCEPA can pass into your breast milk, and may harm your baby. Talk to your doctor about the best way to feed your baby if you take VASCEPA.

Tell your doctor about all the medicines you take, including prescription and over-the-counter medicines, vitamins, and dietary or herbal supplements.

VASCEPA can interact with certain other medicines that you are taking.

Especially tell your doctor if you take medicines that affect your blood clotting (anticoagulants or blood thinners).

How should I take VASCEPA?

- Take VASCEPA exactly as your doctor tells you to take it.
- Do not change your dose or stop taking VASCEPA without talking to your doctor.
- Do not take more capsules than what is prescribed by your doctor.
 - If you are prescribed the 0.5 gram capsules, you should not take more than 8 capsules each day with food.
 - If you are prescribed the 1 gram capsules, you should not take more than 4 capsules each day with food.
- Take VASCEPA capsules whole. Do not break, crush, dissolve, or chew VASCEPA capsules before swallowing.
- If you miss a dose of VASCEPA, take it as soon as you remember. However, if you miss one day of VASCEPA, do not double your dose when you take it.
- Your doctor may start you on a diet that is low in saturated fat, cholesterol, carbohydrates, and low in added sugars before giving you VASCEPA. Stay on this diet while taking VASCEPA.
- Your doctor may do blood tests to check your triglyceride and other lipid levels while you take VASCEPA.

What are the possible side effects of VASCEPA?

VASCEPA may cause serious side effects, including:

- Heart rhythm problems (atrial fibrillation and atrial flutter). Heart rhythm problems which can be serious and cause hospitalization have happened in people who take VASCEPA, especially in people who have heart (cardiovascular) disease or diabetes with a risk factor for heart (cardiovascular) disease, or who have had heart rhythm problems in the past. Tell your doctor if you get any symptoms of heart rhythm problems such as feeling as if your heart is beating fast and irregular, lightheadedness, dizziness, shortness of breath, chest discomfort, or you faint.
- Possible allergic reactions if you are allergic to fish or shellfish. Stop taking VASCEPA and tell your doctor right away or get emergency medical help if you have any signs or symptoms of an allergic reaction.
- Bleeding. Serious bleeding can happen in people who take VASCEPA. Your risk of bleeding may increase if you are also taking a blood thinner medicine.

If you have liver problems and are taking VASCEPA, your doctor should do blood tests during treatment.

The most common side effects of VASCEPA include: muscle and joint pain; swelling of the hands, legs, or feet; constipation; gout; and heart rhythm problems (atrial fibrillation).

These are not all the possible side effects of VASCEPA. Call your doctor for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088.

How should I store VASCEPA?

- Store VASCEPA at room temperature between 68° to 77° F (20° to 25° C).
- Safely throw away medicine that is out of date or no longer needed.

Keep VASCEPA and all medicine out of the reach of children.

General information about the safe and effective use of VASCEPA.

Medicines are sometimes prescribed for purposes other than those listed in a Patient Information leaflet. Do not use VASCEPA for a condition for which it was not prescribed. Do not give VASCEPA to other people, even if they have the same symptoms that you have. It may harm them. You can ask your pharmacist or healthcare provider for information about VASCEPA that is written for health professionals.

What are the ingredients in VASCEPA?

RAVENS COACHING STAFF

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 23/13

Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh, the 2019 NFL Coach of the Year, has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in eight (2008-12, 2014 & 2018-19) of his 12 seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second World Championship.

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's impossible to ignore Harbaugh's measurable success.

Here's a look, entering the 2020 campaign:

- Since his 2008 Baltimore arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's fourth-most total victories (128, tied with NO).
- The Ravens are one of only four teams (NE — 11; GB — 9; Bal. — 8 & Sea. — 8) to earn at least eight postseason berths in the last 12 years. (Baltimore won at least one game in six of those eight playoff campaigns.)
- The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB & Sea.) as the NFL's second most (New England, 16). Of those Ravens' victories, an NFL-best seven have come on the road.
- Harbaugh ties (Pete Carroll, Mike McCarthy, Bill Parcells, Andy Reid, George Seifert, Don Shula & Bill Walsh) for the fourth-most playoff victories (10) in a coach's first 12 seasons. (Joe Gibbs is first with 16, followed by Chuck Noll, 14, and Bill Belichick, 13.)
- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.
- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012) and have won at least one playoff game in six of their eight postseasons with him as head coach.
- Harbaugh has led the Ravens to 118 regular season wins since 2008, ranking as the NFL's fifth most.
- Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dallas) and Tom Coughlin (Jaguars/Giants) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a head coach in NFL history.
- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.
- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011, 2012 and 2013), the former 49ers' head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.
- With Harbaugh, the Ravens have a 72-24 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past 12 seasons, tying (GB) as the NFL's second-best home record during that span (2008-19).

COACHING BACKGROUND

YEARS	COLLEGE/PRO TEAM	POSITION
1984-86	Western Michigan	Graduate Assistant
1987	Pittsburgh	Tight Ends
1988	Morehead State	DBs / Special Teams / Strength & Conditioning
1989-94	University of Cincinnati	Special Teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs
1995-96	University of Cincinnati	Assistant Head Coach
1997	Indiana University	DBs / Special Teams Coordinator
1998-2006	Philadelphia Eagles	Special Teams Coordinator
2007	Philadelphia Eagles	Secondary
2008-20	Baltimore Ravens	Head Coach

- In 2019, the Ravens posted a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, also earning the franchise's first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.
- Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to four AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19).

2019 RECAP

The No. 1 AFC playoff seed Ravens (14-2) won a franchise-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, before falling at home in the Divisional round, 28-12, to the Tennessee Titans...Baltimore's league-best 14-2 record set a franchise mark, topping the 13-3 campaign from 2006...The Ravens secured a playoff berth for the eighth time in Harbaugh's 12 seasons and won the AFC North for the fourth time (2011-12, 2018-19).

The Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they were No. 2 in total yards (407.6)...Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season...The Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296 yards), besting the 1978 Patriots' 3,165...Baltimore also set season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15).

Unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including a league-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores...Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards (sixth most in the league), setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB...RB Mark Ingram II posted 15 total TDs, tying a single-season team record and ranking fourth overall in the NFL. He also rushed for 1,018 yards.

Baltimore allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game...The Ravens boasted the league's No. 5 run defense (93.4 ypg) and were No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg)...During their 12-game winning streak (starting in Week 5), the Ravens allowed the NFL's fewest yards (268.9) and points (15.2) per game...Baltimore allowed just 18 TDs (a league low) in its final 12 games, also scoring six TDs of its own during this span...OLB Matthew Judon led the team with a career-high 9.5 sacks and four forced fumbles...CB Marlon Humphrey tallied 14 passes defended and tied (CB Marcus Peters) for the team lead with three INTs.

Thirteen Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl (below), tying the 2007 Cowboys for the most-ever selections on a Pro Bowl roster: TE Mark Andrews (first), T Orlando

Brown Jr. (first), LS Morgan Cox (third), CB Marlon Humphrey (first), RB Mark Ingram II (third), QB Lamar Jackson (first), OLB Matthew Judon (first), CB Marcus Peters (third), FB Patrick Ricard (first), T Ronnie Stanley (first), S Earl Thomas III (seventh), K Justin Tucker (third) and G Marshal Yanda (eighth).

PERSONAL

Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He served on the board of the Port Discovery Children's Museum and is a contributor to many Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House. In April 2020, the couple made a significant donation to help fund the distribution of meals to healthcare workers serving on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Harbaugh is an advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (Harbaugh was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh has also visited numerous military installations, including bases in the Persian Gulf as part of the inaugural NFL USO Coaches Tour (2009), the Naval Special Warfare Center in Coronado, Calif., (2011), Andrews Air Force Base – just two days after the capture of Osama Bin Laden (2011) – and undisclosed locations in Turkey and Afghanistan.

In 2008, Harbaugh also helped institute Military Appreciation Day, an annual event that takes place during Ravens training camp. Since its establishment, over 10,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet Ravens players and coaches. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. In 2017, he donated New Era hats to soldiers in Afghanistan. The hats represented all four of the major professional sports leagues and several from the NCAA as well. Additionally, he has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has sent care packages to troops overseas.

A history buff, Harbaugh has taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, Pa., during offseason team activities to learn about the Civil War. Near the end of the 2017 training camp, he surprised the entire team by cancelling practice on two occasions, loading everyone on buses to visit The Pentagon and Arlington National Cemetery and another day visit to the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. The trips were opportunities for players, coaches and staff to receive behind-the-scenes tours of the historic locations and show appreciation for what each represents.

John attended Pioneer (Ann Arbor, MI) HS, where he and brother, Jim, were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2016. John and Ingrid have a daughter, Alison, who is a freshman lacrosse player at the University of Notre Dame.

DAVID CULLEY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH /
PASS COORDINATOR / WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: VANDERBILT

BORN: 9/17/55, SPARTA, TN

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 27/2

David Culley joined the Ravens in 2019 as the team's assistant head coach / pass coordinator / wide receivers coach. Entering his 27th NFL coaching season overall, Culley assists the Ravens' offense (which ranked No. 1 in scoring — 33.2 ppg — in 2019) in creating a passing scheme that complements the team's rushing attack. Culley also guides the Ravens' wide receivers, including '19 first-rounder Marquise Brown, whose 7 receiving TDs tied (Marlon Brown and Torrey Smith) a rookie franchise season high. In Culley's first season in Baltimore (2019), the WRs also were key blockers for the team's No. 1-ranked rushing unit (206.0 ypg). The Ravens also ranked No. 2 in total yards (407.6) per game and set team records for touchdowns (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15). Prior to joining the Ravens, Culley spent two years (2017-18) as the Bills' QBs coach. Prior to his time in Buffalo, Culley served as assistant head coach/wide receivers coach with Kansas City (2013-16), where he helped guide the Chiefs to three playoff appearances during his four seasons. The veteran coach also worked alongside John Harbaugh for nine seasons (1999-2007) in Philadelphia. During his tenure with the Eagles (1999-2012), Culley spent time as wide receivers coach (1999-2010) and as a senior offensive assistant/WRs (2011-12). Culley's NFL coaching career has also included stops as wide receivers coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1996-98) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994-95). Before entering the NFL, he spent 16 years coaching in the collegiate ranks.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In 2018, Culley helped guide Buffalo QB Josh Allen, who in 11 starts established franchise records for most total TDs produced by a Bills rookie quarterback (18), most single-game rushing yards by a quarterback (135), most single-season rushing TDs by a quarterback (8) and most single-season rushing yards by a quarterback (631)...Allen also became the only player in NFL history to throw for over 200 yards and rush for over 100 yards in consecutive games...Culley also helped tutor former Ravens WR Jeremy Maclin in both Philadelphia and Kansas City, where in 2015, Maclin set a then-Chiefs single-season record for receptions (87) by a wide receiver...In Maclin's first three seasons with the Eagles (2009-11), he caught more passes (189) than any other WR in franchise history...Under Culley's direction, Eagles WR DeSean Jackson became the first player in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl berth as both a WR and a return man (2009).

2019 RECAP

Guided the Ravens' passing game and wide receivers group, helping the scoring attack to a No. 1 ranking (33.2 ppg) and offense to a No. 2 ranking (407.6 ypg)...First-round pick WR Marquise Brown tied a rookie franchise record with 7 receiving TDs...Ravens set team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15).

CHRIS HORTON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: UCLA

BORN: 12/29/84, LOS ANGELES, CA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): (NFL/RAVENS): 10/7 (3 PLAYING / 7 COACHING)

Chris Horton is in his second season leading the Ravens' exceptional special teams units. Since joining the team in 2014, Horton has helped Baltimore's units perform outstandingly over the last several seasons. In 2019, the most accurate kicker in NFL history, Justin Tucker (a first-team All-Pro) made 28 of 29 FGAs (96.6%), scoring a franchise-record 141 points for the fourth-straight season. He is the NFL's only kicker to surpass the 140 mark in each of the past four years (2016-19). For many seasons, the Ravens have been near the top of special teams rankings. In the annual special teams report from senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore was ranked in the NFL's Top 6 for seven-straight seasons (from 2012-18), including first in 2015. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as a special teams measuring stick.) No other NFL team was in the Top 6 (or even Top 10) in those seven seasons. In 2018, Tucker made 35 of 39 FGAs. (His misses were from 53 and 65 yards, and he had 2 kicks blocked.) In 2018, the Ravens also ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (11.5), with CB/RS Cyrus Jones posting the league's fourth-best mark (13.2).

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In 2014, Horton entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Ravens working with the team's OLBs. Horton played safety for four seasons in the NFL with the Redskins (2008-11) after being selected by Washington in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft.

2019 RECAP

Ravens recorded a franchise-best 14-2 record en route to their second-straight AFC North title...K Justin Tucker earned his third Pro Bowl nod after connecting on 28 of 29 FGAs...In Week 6, he became the fastest pure kicker in NFL history (118 games) to score 1,000 career points.

A RICH HISTORY OF SPECIAL TEAMS

SIX PRO BOWLERS

Six Ravens have earned 10 combined Pro Bowl honors during the John Harbaugh Era (since 2008): ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019), LS Morgan Cox (2015, 2016 & 2019) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER

Three-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who the Ravens signed as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (265) since entering the NFL in 2012. With a 90.8% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (265-of-292 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2017, Koch led the NFL in both punts inside the 10 (16) and the 20 (a franchise-record 40).

RAVENS RETURNERS SCORE BIG

In 2018's Week 12 win vs. Oakland, Baltimore CB/RS Cyrus Jones posted a 70-yard punt return TD, marking the Ravens' first PR-TD since 10/15/17, when Michael Campanaro had a 77-yarder vs. Chicago. Dating back to 2011, six different Ravens have returned punts for touchdowns: Campanaro, Kaelin Clay, Tandon Doss, C. Jones, Jacoby Jones and Lardarius Webb.

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS IN JONES' MAGICAL SEASON

Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

DON MARTINDALE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: DEFIANCE COLLEGE

BORN: 5/19/63, DAYTON, OH

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/9

Don "Wink" Martindale is in his third season leading the Ravens' defense. After guiding the unit to a No. 1-overall ranking (allowed 292.9 ypg) in his first season (2018), Martindale's 2019 group achieved a strong No. 4 ranking (300.6 ypg), helping the team to a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North division title. The Ravens' 6 defensive TDs in 2019 tied (with '06 and '08) for the second most in franchise history (2004 – 7) and also tied (TB) for the most in the NFL last year. Since Martindale was named defensive coordinator (2018), Baltimore has produced an NFL-best 9 defensive TDs and has permitted the league's second-fewest (17.8) points per game. In 2018, Martindale was recognized by Sports Illustrated/MMQB as the Assistant Coach of the Year and was the AP NFL runner-up (Bears' DC Vic Fangio) for the same award. Baltimore established a modern-era mark by not allowing a second-half touchdown in the first six games of 2018. (The last team to do so was the 1934 Detroit Lions.) Upholding its longtime defensive tradition, Baltimore was also among the best in other key defensive categories in 2018, including ranking third in third-down defense (34.1), fourth in rushing yards allowed (82.9 ypg) and fifth in passing yards permitted (210.0 ypg). The Ravens' 80.6 defensive passer rating stood second, only behind the Bears' 72.9 mark.

Initially joining the Ravens in 2012, Martindale guided and helped grow a number of standout Ravens linebackers, most notably former ILB C.J. Mosley, who developed into one of the league's top players, earning a lucrative contract with the New York Jets in 2019. In 2017, the Ravens led the NFL in INTs (22), takeaways (34) and shutouts (3 – the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots). Over the past four seasons (2016-19), the Ravens have allowed the second-fewest points per game (18.6), recorded the second-most interceptions (65, tied with KC) and posted the third-most takeaways (104) in the NFL. In 2016, Baltimore produced an NFL-high 18 INTs (tied, KC & SD), including 4 from Mosley, who ranked second among NFL linebackers. Additionally, standout LB Zachary Orr, who was forced to retire following the 2016 campaign due to a congenital spinal condition, earned second-team All-Pro honors after finishing with a team- and career-high 130 tackles (10th most in the NFL in 2016). Following 2014, Mosley became the first rookie Raven to earn Pro Bowl honors and finished second in the AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting. In addition to Mosley, former Ravens LB Daryl Smith was a standout performer for Baltimore, becoming one of just two NFL players (Lavonte David) to post at least 350 tackles, 5 sacks, 5 INTs and 4 FFs from 2013-15. In 2013, Smith led the team with 123 tackles, also setting a Ravens' single-season record by a linebacker with 19 PD. In Martindale's first season in Baltimore (2012), he coached Hall of Famer Ray Lewis in his final season, helping the Ravens win Super Bowl XLVII.

2019 RECAP

Defense allowed the NFL's third-fewest points per game (17.6) and ranked fourth in yards per game (300.6) en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record...Ravens were the fifth-best run "D" (93.4 ypg) and No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg)...CB Marlon Humphrey (first), OLB Matthew Judon (first), CB Marcus Peters (third) and S Earl Thomas III (seventh) earned Pro Bowl honors on defense...Judon led team with a career-high 9.5 sacks and 4 FFs, while Humphrey and Peters tied for the team lead with 3 INTs apiece.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL

BORN: 8/19/72, ATLANTIC CITY, NJ

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 23/6

Greg Roman was named Baltimore's offensive coordinator in January 2019. He immediately led Baltimore's attack to record-setting heights, ultimately earning him NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors. In Roman's first season as offensive coordinator, the "revolutionary" Ravens posted the best offensive season in team history, helping the team to a franchise-best 14-2 record. Led by 2019 NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, the Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6). The Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. The 2019 Ravens also set season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15). Jackson accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including an NFL-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores. Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards (sixth most in the league), setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB. TE Mark Andrews had 10 receiving TDs, ranking No. 1 among all NFL tight ends and tying (Cooper Kupp) for second by all players. RB Mark Ingram II posted 15 total TDs, tying a single-season team record (Ray Rice, 2011) and ranking fourth overall in the NFL. In 2018, Roman coached a young group of tight ends, all of whom played a role in the team's offense. Rookie Andrews (third-round draft pick) ranked No. 1 among rookie NFL tight ends in receiving yards (552) and No. 3 in receptions (34). Another rookie, first-rounder TE Hayden Hurst, became more involved in the offense after missing the first four games due to injury. Veteran TEs Nick Boyle (16 games & a then-career-high 213 receiving yards) and Maxx Williams (13 games, 143 receiving yards and 1 TD) contributed both in the passing game and rushing attack.

In Roman's first season (2017) back with the team, the offense made significant strides, particularly in the latter part of the year. Following that season, Roman was promoted to assistant head coach/tight ends coach. Since his first term in Baltimore (2006-07), Roman has been a successful NFL offensive coordinator both in San Francisco and Buffalo. With each team, Roman worked with NFL QBs who totaled their highest single-season passer ratings under his guidance: SF's Alex Smith (104.1 in 2012) and Colin Kaepernick (98.3 in 2012) and Buffalo's Tyrod Taylor (99.4 in 2015).

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Roman has 23 years experience coaching in the NFL for five teams, including as offensive coordinator for three of them. With Roman as OC, San Francisco earned three-straight trips to the NFC Championship game (2011-13) and a Super Bowl appearance against the Ravens in 2012. As the Bills' OC, Roman helped Buffalo's run game excel in 2015, as it led the NFL with 152.0 rushing yards per game and 4.78 yards per carry.

RICHARD ANGULO

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Richard Angulo is in his seventh year with the Ravens and his fourth as the team's assistant offensive line coach. In 2019, the Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6) en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and a second-straight AFC North title. With help from the outstanding play of the O-line, the Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165).

ANDY BISCHOFF

ASSISTANT TIGHT ENDS COACH

Andy Bischoff is in his sixth year with the Ravens and his fourth working with the tight ends group. Bischoff helps lead a talented group of young tight ends, including Pro Bowl TE Mark Andrews, who led the team with 64 receptions, 852 receiving yards and 10 TDs in 2019. Andrews was an integral part of the offense, which set a number of team records en route to a franchise-best 14-2 season and the AFC North title. The 2019 Ravens established single-season marks for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15).

RANDY BROWN

SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Randy Brown enters his 13th season coaching the Ravens' specialists. Originally joining Baltimore in 2008 as a kicking consultant, Brown has helped coach five Pro Bowl Ravens: LS Morgan Cox (2015, 2016 & 2019), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019), P Sam Koch (2015), K Billy Cundiff (2010) and K Matt Stover (last kicked for the Ravens in 2008 but earned All-Star honors in 2000 prior to Brown's arrival). Under his guidance, Tucker ranks as the most accurate kicker in NFL history (265-of-292, 90.8%), while Koch holds Ravens records for punts inside the 20 (405) and gross (45.4) and net (39.5) punting averages.

JOE CULLEN

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Joe Cullen enters his fifth year as the Ravens' defensive line coach. A defensive line specialist, Cullen has 31 years of coaching experience, including 13 in the NFL with five teams (Bal., TB, Cle., Jax. and Det.). In 2019, the Ravens upheld Baltimore's strong defensive tradition, allowing the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game. Led by strong play from the defensive front, the team also ranked No. 5 against the run (93.4 ypg) and No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg).

JOE D'ALESSANDRIS

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Joe D'Alessandris, 42-year coaching veteran, enters his fourth season as Baltimore's offensive line coach. "Joe D" has extensive experience guiding and developing linemen, both in the collegiate ranks and pros. In his three full seasons in Baltimore, D'Alessandris has mentored several young offensive linemen, including LT Ronnie Stanley and RT Orlando Brown Jr., both of whom earned their first Pro Bowls in 2019. Last season, the Ravens posted the best offensive campaign in team history and their second-straight AFC North title, helping the team to a franchise-best 14-2 record.

BOBBY ENGRAM

TIGHT ENDS COACH

Bobby Engram, who enjoyed a 14-year NFL playing career, is in his seventh season with the Ravens and his second as the team's tight ends coach. Engram spent his first five seasons in Baltimore guiding the wide receivers. In 2019, Ravens tight ends were an integral part of the team's record-setting offense and 14-2 franchise-best season. Mark Andrews, who earned his first Pro Bowl, led the team with 64 receptions, 852 receiving yards and 10 receiving TDs. Nick Boyle and Hayden Hurst rounded out the trio that accounted for three of the team's Top 5 receptions leaders.

CHRIS HEWITT

PASS DEFENSE COORDINATOR

Chris Hewitt enters his sixth season leading the Ravens' secondary. Recently promoted to pass defense coordinator entering the 2020 campaign, Hewitt's units have helped the team earn top defensive rankings each of the past several years. In 2019, Baltimore achieved a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North division title. The defense allowed the NFL's third-fewest points per game (17.6), ranked fourth in yards per game (300.6) and was No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg).

STERLING LUCAS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT / DEFENSIVE LINE

Sterling Lucas is in his fifth year with the Ravens and first as defensive assistant/defensive line, following a year working primarily with the linebackers. In 2019, the Ravens' defense allowed the NFL's third-fewest points per game (17.6), ranked fourth in yards per game (300.6), was the fifth-best run "D" (93.4 ypg) and ranked No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg) en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North Division title.

MIKE MACDONALD

LINEBACKERS COACH

Mike Macdonald enters his third season as the team's linebackers coach. Now in his seventh year with the Ravens, Macdonald previously spent time as the team's defensive backs coach (2017) and as a defensive assistant (2015-16). In 2019, the Ravens upheld their strong defensive tradition, allowing the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game. Baltimore also ranked fifth against the run (93.4 ypg) and No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg) last season, en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North Division title.

JESSE MINTER

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Jesse Minter enters his fourth season with the Ravens and first as the team's defensive backs coach. In 2019, Minter helped lead the Ravens' strong secondary, which included three Pro Bowl defenders: CBs Marlon Humphrey (first) and Marcus Peters (third) and S Earl Thomas III (seventh). Baltimore allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North division title. The Ravens also ranked fifth against the run (93.4 ypg) and No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg) last season.

RAVENS COACHING STAFF

STEVE SAUNDERS HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Steve Saunders is in his fifth year with the Ravens. In his current role as head strength & conditioning coach, he oversees the performance department and strength and conditioning programs. Saunders guides all sports science, speed, strength training and recovery initiatives, working closely with the team's athletic training department. His focus includes player injury prevention, recovery and energy system training in an effort to maximize performance.

JAMES URBAN QUARTERBACKS COACH

James Urban is in his third season with the Ravens as quarterbacks coach. For the past two years, he has mentored QB Lamar Jackson, helping the signal-caller earn unanimous NFL MVP honors in 2019. Jackson led the Ravens to their first-ever No. 1 playoff seed and second-straight AFC North Division title, while producing one of the greatest seasons ever by a QB. In 2019, he became the only QB in NFL history to produce at least 3,000 passing yards (3,127) and 1,000 rushing yards (1,206) in a single season. His 1,206 rushing yards are an NFL single-season record by a QB. Jackson ranked first in a number of categories: total TDs (43), passing TDs (36), rushing average (6.9), games with 5 TD passes (3), 4 TD passes (4) and 3 TD passes (8).

CRAIG VER STEEG SENIOR ASSISTANT / RUNNING BACKS

Craig Ver Steeg is in his 13th year working with the Baltimore offense. In 2019, the Ravens earned a second-straight AFC North title and a franchise-best 14-2 record. Led by 2019 NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, the Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6). The Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season.

ANTHONY WATSON ASST. STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Anthony Watson is in his second NFL season as the Ravens' assistant strength and conditioning coach. Watson works closely with head strength and conditioning coach Steve Saunders to oversee a program that helps prepare players for the rigors of each NFL season. He joined the Ravens spending several years working at Power Train Sports in Pennsylvania. (Power Train is a sports performance and fitness training facility founded by Saunders in 2000.) Watson attended Lycoming (PA) College, where he played basketball.

MATT WEISS RUNNING BACKS COACH

Matt Weiss is in his 12th year with the Ravens and his second as the team's running backs coach. In 2019, the Ravens posted the best offensive campaign in team history and their second-straight AFC North title, helping the team to a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore running backs contributed to a No. 1-ranked rushing attack (206.0 ypg) and scoring unit (33.2 ppg). The offense also finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6) per game and set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season.

T.J. WEIST ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

T.J. Weist, who joined the Ravens in 2018 as a coaching analyst, was promoted to assistant special teams coach in 2019. Along with Chris Horton and Randy Brown, Weist assists Baltimore's exceptional special teams units. In 2019, the Ravens won a second-straight AFC North title and produced a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore is the first NFL stop for Weist, whose coaching career spans three decades and several colleges, including Western Kentucky, where he coached under John Harbaugh's father, Jack, for one season (2002).

DREW WILKINS OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

Drew Wilkins, who enters his 11th season with the Ravens and his first as outside linebackers coach, has helped guide Ravens pass rushers over the last several years. The 2019 Ravens produced a franchise-best 14-2 record, winning a second-straight AFC North title. Baltimore allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game. The Ravens neglected the league's No. 5 run "D" (93.4 ypg) and were No. 6 vs. the pass (207.2 ypg).

RAVENS HOLDING THEIR BREATH FOR A PROMISING 2020

BY JOHN EISENBERG

As training camps opened in late July, no one was breathing at the Under Armour Performance Center and across the NFL.

That's an exaggeration, of course, but it does seem everyone, and I do mean everyone, is holding his or her breath as the 2020 season begins. Uncertainty plus anticipation equals an absence of breathing throughout the pro football world.

And that breath-holding probably is worse in Baltimore than just about anywhere.

In quite a few other places, they want to see football, but they're wondering whether their team is earmarked for a winning season or at least one that makes for interesting viewing. But few analysts are asking such questions about the Ravens because there's little doubt.

They engineered the best record in the league last year, ending the regular season on a 12-game winning streak, and most of their key performers are back. Lamar Jackson, their electrical force of a quarterback and the reigning league MVP, touches the ball on every offensive snap.

And to their already-potent 2019 mix, they've added a handful of players who could make them even better, including Calais Campbell, one of the league's most formidable defensive linemen. A set of young offensive weapons also is new to the scene.

Quite simply, the Ravens are loaded.

When Pro Football Focus ranked the rosters of all 32 NFL teams in June, Baltimore came in at the top. Not near the top. The Ravens were first.

Analytics and oddsmakers have them favored to win all 16 of their games, including a Week 3 matchup with the Kansas City Chiefs, the reigning Super Bowl champs and the Ravens' only true competitor in the race to be the NFL's most interesting and exciting team.

One never knows how a season will unfold, but the Ravens are widely regarded as top-tier Super Bowl contenders.

NEW TEAMMATES CALAIS CAMPBELL AND LAMAR JACKSON WERE HONORED AS THE MVPs ON DEFENSE AND OFFENSE AT THE PRO BOWL LAST JANUARY.

If something were to happen to the season due to the coronavirus, there'd be profound disappointment in Baltimore, as Campbell noted during an offseason conversation with my colleagues Ryan Mink and Garrett Downing on "The Lounge" podcast.

"I feel like it would be bad fortune if we don't get to finish the season because of Covid," Campbell said. "If we can follow the rules and lock in and have a full, complete season, I feel that the team the Ravens have built has every opportunity to be Super Bowl champions and win it all. It'd be a shame if that opportunity is wasted."

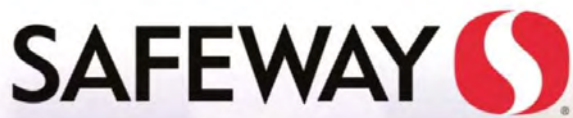

Weirdly, the Ravens' chances of reaching their goal rests almost as much on their opponents as themselves, as it'll take buy-in on the health protocols from all 32 locker rooms to pull off a normal season.

"There are about 2,000 players (combined) on all teams throughout a season," Campbell said, "and you have to count on those guys to follow the rules and separate from people and try to keep the locker room safe. That's the scary part because it's really going to be the honor system."

All the Ravens can do is hold up their end off the field, giving them a chance to do their thing on the field.

"We're going to do what we have to do. We're going to try," Campbell said, "and hopefully we can get through a whole season, and when it's all said and done, we can kiss that Lombardi Trophy. Man, that's the goal."

It's a big goal, but realistic so ... yup ... hold your breath.

2020 BALTIMORE RAVENS

"I AM REALLY EXCITED ABOUT OUR TEAM. WE HAVE BEEN WORKING HARD ON IMPROVING IN ALL AREAS. OUR JOB IS TO STAY AHEAD. OUR JOB IS TO FIND THE AREAS WHERE WE CAN COME UP WITH NEW IDEAS – EXPAND, TWEAK, CHALLENGE PEOPLE THE WAY THEY CHALLENGED US OR THE WAY WE ANTICIPATE THEM CHALLENGING US GOING FORWARD. WE HAVE TALKED ABOUT BUILDING THE FOUNDATION UP FROM THE BEGINNING AND HAVE BEEN WORKING ON STACKING ONE GOOD DAY AFTER ANOTHER. WE WILL TRY TO BE THE VERY BEST TEAM WE CAN BE THIS SEASON. WE'LL SEE WHERE IT TAKES US. ARE WE CAPABLE OF WINNING THE WHOLE THING THIS YEAR? ABSOLUTELY, WITHOUT QUESTION. NOW WE HAVE TO GO DO IT. AND THAT'S WHAT WE ARE WORKING TO DO."

– RAVENS HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH

RAVENS OFFENSE

CONTINUES ITS RISE

BY BROOKE BALZANO

After a season spent rewriting the NFL's record book and shattering single-season franchise records, the Ravens' offense looks to take the next step in its evolution under the guidance of second-year offensive coordinator and 2019 NFL Assistant Coach of the Year Greg Roman. Unanimous NFL MVP Lamar Jackson is set to lead an explosive attack filled with established veterans and exhilarating rookies.

The Ravens dominated on the ground last season, recording 3,296 rushing yards — an NFL single-season rushing record — thanks in large part to Jackson and three-time Pro Bowler Mark Ingram II. The duo rushed for over 2,000 yards and scored a combined 17 rushing touchdowns, with Ingram II tallying 15 total TDs, tying the single-season team record.

Baltimore is stacked with a plethora of running backs, including second-round draft pick J.K. Dobbins, who rushed for 2,003 yards and 21 touchdowns in his final season at Ohio State. Returning to reinforce the Ravens' record-breaking run game are young standouts Gus Edwards (third year) and Justice Hill (second year), both of whom made key contributions in 2019. "To have that kind of backfield is a blessing," Roman stated.

The receiving corps hopes to improve upon last year's all-around productive season, where the Ravens became the first team in NFL history to average over 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards per game. Marquise "Hollywood" Brown looks to build on his explosive rookie campaign, alongside returning starters Miles Boykin and Willie Snead IV. The tight end group is led by Pro Bowler Mark Andrews, who ranked No. 1 among NFL tight ends with 10 receiving touchdowns in 2019. Entering his sixth year in Baltimore, Nick Boyle — one of the league's best blockers — provides continued leadership for a unit that excelled last season. "We're going to be multiple with how we deploy personnel — so the more the merrier," stated Roman, who regularly utilizes Pro Bowl fullback Pat Ricard as an H-back.

With the retirement of eight-time Pro Bowl guard Marshal Yanda, tackles Orlando Brown Jr. and Ronnie Stanley and guard Bradley Bozeman are set to command the offensive line. The unit was bolstered by the acquisition of guard D.J. Fluker, an eight-year veteran, who joins the Ravens after spending the past two seasons in Seattle.

Following their historic 2019 campaign, the Ravens are primed to evolve into what they hope will be an undefendable offense. Equipped with an abundance of talent, Baltimore has its sights set on making a championship run.

RAVENS DEFENSE CHASING GREATNESS

BY BROOKE BALZANO

Under defensive coordinator Don Martindale's second season leading the squad, the Ravens' defense ranked among the NFL's best in 2019. Baltimore finished No. 3 in points allowed and No. 4 in overall defense, giving the unit a Top 10 defensive ranking for the ninth time during the John Harbaugh Era (since 2008).

Baltimore's defense remains laden with veteran talent and has received an infusion of promising young players who are eager to capitalize on their opportunity. "The best 11 will play, but it could be a different set of 11 for every package and matchup that we want to do, with whatever situation it is," Martindale stated. "Of course takeaways are going to be a big priority for our defense. The changes that we made up front and the additions that we made — we're really excited to see the product on the field."

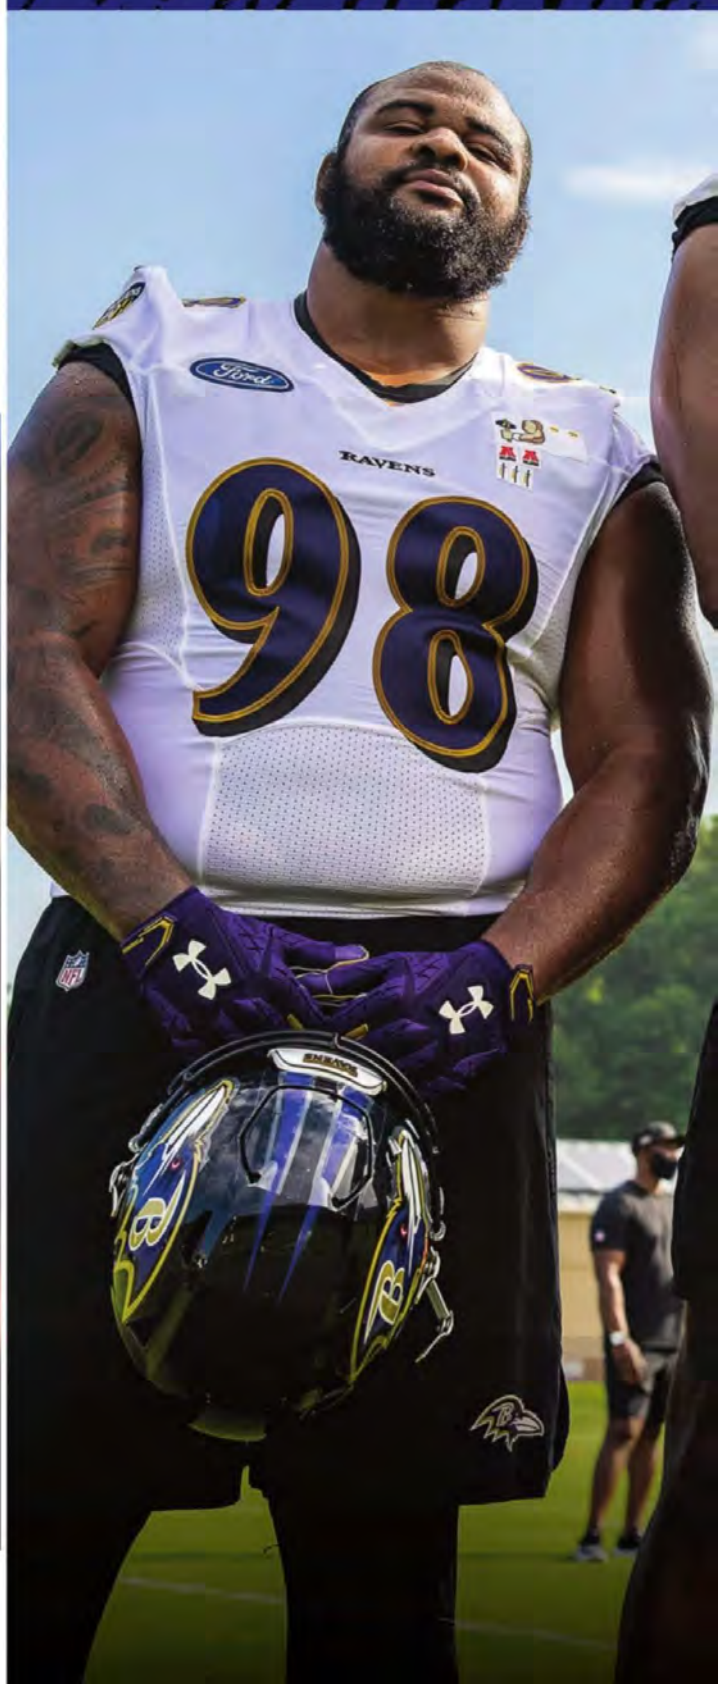

The battle begins in the trenches, where defensive tackle Brandon Williams will serve as an anchor and play a pivotal role in stopping the run. The Pro Bowler is accompanied by newly-acquired defensive linemen Calais Campbell and Derek Wolfe. Campbell, a five-time Pro Bowler, recorded 31.5 sacks over his last three years in Jacksonville. Wolfe, the former Bronco, collected a career-high seven sacks in just 12 games last season.

OLB MATTHEW JUDON

"THIS TEAM COULD BE VERY SPECIAL FOR A GOOD WHILE HERE, SO I WANTED TO BE ABLE TO THROW MY HAT IN THE RING AND REALLY JUST ADD VALUE WHERE I CAN. I FEEL LIKE WE HAVE A GOOD CHANCE TO BE VERY GOOD THIS YEAR."

CB JIMMY SMITH

Returning behind the revamped defensive front is outside linebacker Matthew Judon, who led the Ravens in sacks (9.5) last season. The Pro Bowler will help lead Baltimore's highly-touted draft picks, including linebacker Patrick Queen (first round), who was named Defensive MVP of the 2019 CFP National Championship game, and linebacker Malik Harrison (third round), who led Ohio State in tackles the past two seasons.

The Ravens' secondary remains formidable with top-tier talent, hungry to echo its No. 2 defensive passer rating ranking from 2019. All-Pro cornerback Marlon Humphrey takes aim at another record-setting season, along with the help of 2019 mid-season acquisition Marcus Peters, who contributed to the unit's six defensive touchdowns with two pick-sixes. After earning a starting safety job in 2019, fourth-year pro Chuck Clark returns as a respected leader of the back end, while CB Jimmy Smith, the longest-tenured Ravens defender, is poised to make a big impact in Year 10.

Baltimore's defense has continuously proven its strength, standing atop the NFL's ranks year after year. In 2020, the Ravens are determined to turn their championship mindset into a reality. Chasing greatness, the defense is poised to help bring another Lombardi Trophy to Baltimore.

2019 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

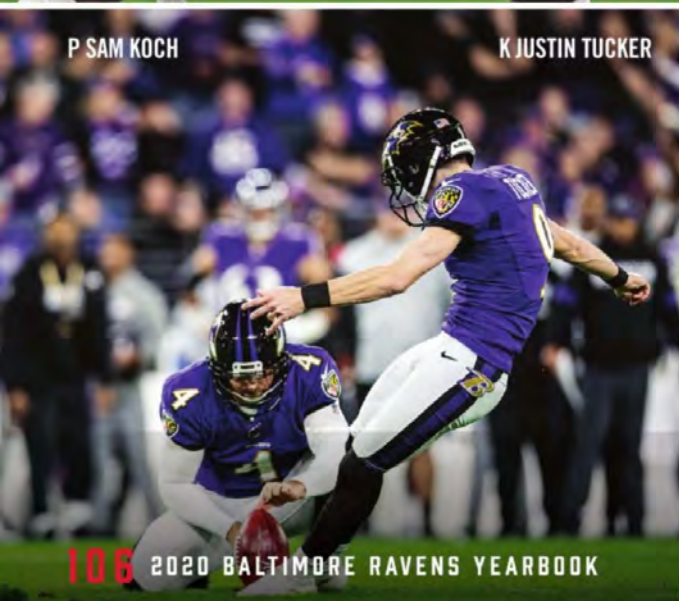

WR/RS CHRIS MOORE

DB/LB ANTHONY LEVINE SR.

P SAM KOCH

K JUSTIN TUCKER

THE LEGACY CONTINUES

BY BROOKE BALZANO

Baltimore's special teams battery is one of the NFL's best, thanks in large part to the continuity of the group. Consistently producing tremendous success, kicker Justin Tucker, punter/holder Sam Koch and long snapper Morgan Cox have all worked together since 2012.

Tucker is the most accurate kicker in NFL history, and entering 2020, owns a 90.8% success rate. A unanimous All-Decade Team selection, he is the NFL's only kicker to surpass 140 points in each of the past four years — and he looks to extend that streak this season.

Koch hopes to continue the glory of "The Wolfpack" after signing a two-year contract extension this offseason. The Pro Bowler serves as the franchise's career leader in punts pinned inside the 20 (405) and is one of the most reliable holders of all time. A three-time Pro Bowler, Cox landed another spot in the annual All-Star game following the 2019 campaign.

Veteran contributors Chris Moore and Anthony Levine Sr. look to continue their productivity as standout coverage players, while newly-acquired Calais Campbell, who ranks sixth all time in blocked kicks (seven), should be a force in the special teams trenches.

"CHRIS MOORE HAS BEEN AN OUTSTANDING GUNNER FOR US. HE HAS MADE A LOT OF PLAYS ON THE OUTSIDE."

— SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR CHRIS HORTON

"ANTHONY LEVINE IS A GREAT LEADER. HE DOES A GREAT JOB OF SPEARHEADING OUR SPECIAL TEAMS ALONG WITH 'THE WOLFPACK'"

— HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH

"[SIXTH-ROUND DRAFT PICK] JAMES PROCHE IS A GUY WHO GETS UPFIELD QUICKLY WITH THE FOOTBALL IN HIS HANDS AS A PUNT RETURNER. I THINK HE FITS OUR TEAM VERY WELL."

— EVP & GM ERIC DE COSTA

2019 COACH OF THE YEAR

IN 2019, JOHN HARBAUGH BECAME THE FIRST RAVENS COACH EVER TO WIN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NFL COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD. HARBAUGH HAS LED THE RAVENS TO A PLAYOFF BERTH IN EIGHT (2008-12, 2014 & 2018-19) OF HIS 12 SEASONS, AND IN 2012, CAPTURED THE FRANCHISE'S SECOND SUPER BOWL TITLE.

BUILDING A STRONG TEAM

Professional football players, members of the NFL Players Association, AFL-CIO, are supported by the more than 100,000 members and retirees of Region 8 International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace & Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW).

Football players and UAW members understand the importance of safety. Whether on the job or on the field both fight for strong health and safety policies and regulations. Working families across the country deserve safe working conditions, access to health care, and a voice in decisions that affect their family's well-being. As we continue to navigate a global pandemic, we are resolved to make the workplace safe for all workers. Working together we strive to tackle some of the biggest problems that plague our economy, from growing economic inequality, wage stagnation, and racial and gender inequalities to eroding democracy and barriers to civic participation.

RAVENS SUPERFAN MO GABA

IS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

BY RYAN MINK

Mo Gaba already has a permanent place in the hearts and minds of the Ravens and Baltimore radio listeners. Now his mark on NFL history will be preserved in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

At 14 years old, Gaba passed away in July after a fourth battle with cancer. While it robbed him of his sight long ago and other functions during the battle after, Gaba's spirit and warmth never wavered.

In 2019, Gaba became the first person to announce an NFL draft pick using Braille. He announced the fourth-round selection of guard Ben Powers live from Baltimore's Inner Harbor, which set off an emotional applause inside the Ravens draft room.

That Braille card is now displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. The exhibit went live the week of his passing, and Gaba and his family knew about it before he passed.

President and CEO David Baker recorded a message for Gaba to tell him the good news on Friday.

"That was a history-breaking performance, Mo, and we want to remember that at the Pro Football Hall of Fame," Baker said in his message. "So we're going to put it on exhibit, along with Ed Reed's bronze bust and Jonathan Ogden and Ray Lewis' bronze busts. And we've also got a lot of jerseys from Lamar Jackson. He doesn't have a bronze bust yet, but he's on his way."

"But you're in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Congratulations. Welcome to the Hall of Fame, Mo."

Once the card was on display, Baker recorded a video from inside the Pro Football Hall of Fame to show and tell Gaba and his family about his exhibit. The exhibit calls Gaba a "Baltimore sports legend" and says he is "one of the bravest fans in all the NFL."

Gaba's health problems began at nine months old when he was diagnosed with a malignant tumor of the retina and lost his sight soon thereafter. Gaba has spent much of his life in hospitals since, but he still found time for his passion of Baltimore sports.

Gaba liked listening to sports talk radio, and one day in 2015 — at nine years old — he decided to call in when his mother, Sonya, was out of the house. It didn't take long for Gaba to become one of 105.7 The Fan's most beloved callers — one that even got his own entrance music.

Gaba is also a huge Baltimore Orioles fan, and the club announced shortly before he passed that he has been elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as the second-ever recipient of The Wild Bill Hagy Award.

The Ravens had a special relationship with Gaba. Head Coach John Harbaugh surprised him with the news that he would be announcing a Ravens' draft pick last year. After the 2019 draft, Gaba visited a practice last season and met Powers, Jackson and the rest of the team.

The Ravens recently helped Gaba celebrate his graduation from middle school when the Marching Ravens played at a car parade with hundreds of cars driving by his apartment honking their horn and shouting their congrats.

During the parade, Ravens guard Bradley Bozeman presented Gaba with a Ravens game ball, which he promptly lifted over his head and dedicated to his mom.

Gaba's positive energy, selflessness and bravery captured the hearts of the Ravens and their fans. Now he'll not only forever be a Raven, but also a treasured piece of NFL history.

"WE ARE SO SADDENED TO LEARN OF MO GABA'S PASSING. THE WORLD HAS LOST A BEAUTIFUL SPIRIT AND A SHINING LIGHT. WITH HIS INFECTIOUS LAUGH, AMAZING LOVE OF LIFE AND LOVE OF BALTIMORE SPORTS, MO CAPTURED THE HEARTS OF NOT ONLY OUR ORGANIZATION, BUT THE ENTIRE STATE OF MARYLAND.

MO'S SPIRIT IS TRULY A GLORY TO GOD. HE REPRESENTS THE BEST OF US AND HAS LEFT AN INDELIBLE MARK ON SO MANY. I THANK GOD THAT HE WAS BROUGHT INTO MY LIFE.

WE SEND HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES TO HIS MOTHER, SONS, WHO WILL ALWAYS BE A PART OF OUR FAMILY."

— RAVENS HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH

"WHEN MO MADE THAT PICK AND THEY SHOWED THE COMMUNITY RALLYING AROUND HIM AND WE COULD SEE HIS JOY, IT WAS THE MOST POWERFUL MOMENT OF THE DRAFT FOR US. IT WAS AT THAT TIME I SAW THE MAGIC OF MO AND THE ABILITY HE HAS TO GALVANIZE A COMMUNITY. TO SEE SOMEONE WHO HAS SO MUCH LOVE FOR SOMETHING THAT YOU DO DAILY, FOR SOMEONE TO HAVE SO MUCH LOVE AND SUPPORT AND PRAISE AND ENTHUSIASM FOR THIS TEAM, HE FEELS LIKE FAMILY."

RAVENS ANNOUNCE DISTRIBUTION OF $1 MILLION IN SOCIAL JUSTICE DONATIONS

August 10, 2020 – The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation and the Baltimore Ravens have jointly distributed $1 million to support social justice reform throughout the Baltimore community. A committee of current and former Ravens players determined which Baltimore-area organizations would receive the funds, with 28 total programs ultimately chosen.

The player committee included current Ravens LS Morgan Cox, CB Marlon Humphrey, OLB Matthew Judon, T Ronnie Stanley and K Justin Tucker, in addition to former Ravens WR Torrey Smith. The group met on multiple occasions to identify organizations that continuously strive to make positive impacts throughout the Baltimore area.

Below are the 28 organizations that received funds:

- 10:12 Sports
- 100 Black Men of Maryland, Inc.
- ACT Impact: Baltimore Pumphouse
- B-360
- Baltimore Action Legal Team
- Black Women Build – Baltimore
- Bridges Baltimore
- BTST Services
- Center for Urban Families
- Challenge 2 Change
- CLIA: Youth Voice for Community Change
- Dent Education
- Family League of Baltimore
- FCA Baltimore
- Fund for Educational Excellence
- Gideon's Promise
- Mentoring Mentors, Inc.
- Next One Up
- No Boundaries Coalition
- Out for Justice
- Outward Bound
- PeacePlayers Baltimore
- Safe Alternative Foundation for Education, Inc.
- St. Francis Neighborhood Center
- Thread
- Urban Alliance Baltimore
- Vehicles for Change Inc.
- Y of Central Maryland

"WE HAVE A POWERFUL PLATFORM – AND A RESPONSIBILITY – TO HELP ELIMINATE INJUSTICES THAT ARE PREVALENT IN OUR COMMUNITIES. FOR FAR TOO LONG, PEOPLE OF COLOR HAVE BEEN UNDERSERVED BY A SYSTEM THAT SHOULD PROTECT, RATHER THAN HARM."

"OUR ENTIRE ORGANIZATION, INCLUDING PLAYERS PAST AND PRESENT, IS FULLY COMMITTED TO CREATING SOCIAL JUSTICE REFORM. WE WILL CONTINUE TO SEEK OUT OPPORTUNITIES THAT SUPPORT, ENCOURAGE AND DEFEND THOSE WHO ARE MOST IN NEED."

– RAVENS OWNER STEVE BISCIOTTI

"WHEN YOU TALK ABOUT SOCIAL JUSTICE, THERE ARE MANY DIFFERENT ISSUES – FROM EDUCATION, TO CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM, TO HEALTH. THERE ARE SO MANY AVENUES THE PLAYERS COULD HAVE CHOSEN, SO THEY REALLY SPREAD IT OUT AMONG A LOT OF DIFFERENT GRASSROOTS ORGANIZATIONS."

"THIS IS JUST THE BEGINNING OF TRYING TO FIGURE OUT AS MANY WAYS TO COLLABORATE WITH THE PEOPLE IN THE CITY WHO ARE DOING GREAT THINGS TO HELP CHANGE BALTIMORE FOR THE BETTER."

– FORMER RAVENS WR TORREY SMITH

RAVENS CONTINUE SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

The Ravens have taken an active role in supporting programming, events and advocacy efforts to promote social justice since late 2017, some of which are detailed below:

In 2018, Ravens executives and 19 Ravens players sent a letter to President Trump recommending four African-American Marylanders for consideration of presidential action, to commute or pardon their sentences.

The team also launched a five-year, $1.5 million partnership with Up2Us Sports to help hire, train and support more than 200 sports coaches to mentor youth living in low-income communities.

Additionally, the team and players contributed $200,000 to Baltimore City Public Schools to help upgrade the heating and air conditioning units at Lakewood Elementary School.

Other donations in 2018 included $100,000 to Job Opportunities Task Force and $200,000 to help support the following nine organizations:

- Baltimore City Police Bridges Program Collaborative
- Baltimore City Police Explorer's Program
- Baltimore City Police Commissioner's Basketball League
- Bridges Baltimore
- Center for Urban Families
- Next One Up
- Outward Bound
- PeacePlayers
- Sutton Scholars High School Enrichment Program

In 2018 and 2019, the Ravens teamed up with Baltimore-based nonprofit Thread to facilitate "Gameday Conversations," an initiative that involves citywide Ravens watch parties to encourage conversations about issues that impact Baltimore. Again in 2019, the Ravens and Ravens players made a $200,000 donation to the Baltimore City Public School System to upgrade HVAC units, including at Thomas Jefferson Elementary.

In 2020, The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation and the Ravens jointly committed $1 million to support social justice reform throughout the Baltimore community. A committee of current and former Ravens players worked to determine which Baltimore-area programs would benefit from the contribution.

The Ravens are in the third year of a five-year partnership with Up2Us Sports. In 2018, team president Dick Cass (at right) helped make the announcement that includes a $1.5 million investment to help expand the Up2Us Sports program throughout Baltimore.

RAVENS FOUNDATION: COVID-19 RESPONSE

RAVENS FOUNDATION, INC.

The Ravens Foundation, Inc. is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth and their families with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the team and foundation took the following steps to support community efforts:

- Supported the American Red Cross by hosting a blood drive at M&T Bank Stadium in June to support the urgent need for blood donations
- Made a $100,000 donation to the American Red Cross
- Made a $1.25 million donation to the Maryland Food Bank
- The Baltimore Ravens and The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation donated $250,000 each to the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland and the Baltimore Community Foundation
- Made a $100,000 donation to The Salvation Army
- WR Willie Snead IV donated $15,000 to help provide meals in Baltimore for 750 families in need
- WR Miles Boykin held a virtual meet-and-greet on Chatalyze, with all proceeds going to United Way's COVID-19 Relief Fund
- DE Calais Campbell and the CRC Foundation provided laptops for 100 Baltimore City students
- Hall of Fame safety Ed Reed provided box meals for students and families of Booker T. Washington Middle School

ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The mission of the All Community Team (ACT) is to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., player foundations and associated local charitable organizations. Through a wide variety of activities and events, the ACT makes a positive impact in the Maryland area while strengthening ties between the Ravens, their partners and the community. Title sponsor, M&T Bank, joins additional Baltimore corporations such as MedStar Health (top photo) and Coca-Cola (bottom photo), with the ACT providing financial and volunteer support to many Ravens community service projects.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Thanks to Ravens players, thousands of families received support, including food and presents during the holidays. The 2019 food distributions and meal services featured the support of more than 25 players, including Miles Boykin, Marlon Humphrey, Matthew Judon (pictured), Sam Koch, Anthony Levine Sr., Pernell McPhee, Pat Ricard, Willie Snead IV, Ronnie Stanley and Earl Thomas III.

In December, the Ravens hosted the 15th Annual Holiday Helpers event at a Target store in Owings Mills. On hand were 19 Ravens players, along with mascot Poe and Ravens cheerleaders to serve as personal shoppers for area children who received gift certificates to shop for themselves and their families. In addition, 13 players led their own toy drives and shopping sprees for local underserved youth.

CRUCIAL CATCH

During the 2019 season, the Ravens and the American Cancer Society continued to grow the NFL's Crucial Catch initiatives, which address early detection and risk reduction efforts for all types of cancers. Prior to the Ravens-Bengals game at M&T Bank Stadium, 50 PSL season ticket holders who have fought, and in some cases, continue to fight, a wide variety of cancers, were recognized prior to kickoff.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

In association with the NFL's Salute to Service Campaign, the Ravens honor veterans and active duty members of the military all year in many ways, including hosting military members at training camp and practices, visiting veteran hospitals, hosting workouts for wounded warriors and paralyzed veterans, organizing a Play 60 event on base at Ft. Meade Military base, welcoming home soldiers and showing support through care packages, letters and daily communication.

At each home game, the Ravens honor groups that include military representatives, first responders, veterans and/or wounded warriors through the CSX Seats for Service program. Additionally, joined by Dietz & Watson, the team honors active and veteran service members with the Hometown Hero Award during a pre-game presentation of the game ball to the head referee. A local military member is introduced alongside Marquise Brown to celebrate the team's Salute to Service game.

PLAY 60

In 2019, the Ravens hosted a PLAY 60 event alongside Special Olympics Maryland to kick off the year-round efforts of the NFL PLAY 60 campaign, which is designed to promote healthy and active lifestyles among today's youth. Matt Skura (pictured) joined teammates at Friendship Valley Elementary School for a special PLAY 60 assembly and pep rally.

Through school assemblies and special partnerships with the American Dairy Association North East, Carroll County Public Schools' Project ACES (Active Children Excel in School) program, and Baltimore and Howard County Public School systems, the Ravens delivered the PLAY 60 message to more than 125,000 local youth.

RAVENS CAW TO ACTION

During the 2019 season, the Ravens invited fans and sponsors to join them in the team's Huddle for 100 "Caw to Action" efforts. Throughout the day, the Ravens planned over 120 events across 14 Baltimore metro communities. Projects were separated into eight unique teams and ranged from cleaning up parks, to volunteering at local schools and community centers, to organizing books at the Maryland Book Bank. The events brought together over 300 staff, alumni and players, and over 25,000 volunteers, culminating in 3.7 million volunteer minutes served. The Ravens' "Caw to Action" was later determined to be the NFL's largest individual huddle.

OUR TEAM. OUR COMMUNITY.

In 2019, the Ravens hosted their third-annual PLAY 60 All-Abilities Football Clinic, facilitated by Ravens players, cheerleaders and mascot Poe, alongside athletes from Special Olympics Maryland.

Ravens RISE is the team's football outreach program that provides football players, from youth to high school levels, opportunities to "Play Like A Raven."

Prior to the Ravens-49ers game, the Ravens honored individuals recognized with the Community Quarterback award. Honorees exhibited exceptional leadership, dedication and commitment to bettering their local communities.

The Maryland Army National Guard gave coaches and players a ride from the Under Armour Performance Center to M&T Bank Stadium and back aboard Chinook and Black Hawk helicopters.

Annually, Ravens players have the opportunity to participate in the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative by personalizing their cleats to represent particular causes or organizations that are important to them.

The Ravens announced a donation to Baltimore City Public Schools to provide funding for the installation of HVAC units. Ravens players and team president Dick Cass were in attendance for the special celebration at Thomas Jefferson Elementary/Middle School.

The Baltimore Ravens and the Maryland Book Bank set up their Bookmobile as more than 300 students received free books, and teachers received new supplies.

Ravens players, mascot Poe and cheerleaders surprised students from Baltimore City Waverly Elementary School with a special assembly. The Ravens provided students who participated and excelled in the PLAY 60 challenge with brand new bikes and helmets.

RAVENS SCHOLARS

Ravens Scholars recognizes five outstanding high school seniors and awards a $5,000 renewable scholarship ($20,000 over four years) to support each scholar's respective college education.

RAVENS YOUTH FOOTBALL GRANT

Ravens Youth Football Grant, alongside Under Armour, provides grants for new apparel for football programs across Maryland.

TOUCHDOWN FOR TEACHERS

Touchdown for Teachers, presented by M&T Bank, recognizes local teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities.

RAVENS PLAY 60 GRANT

Ravens PLAY 60 Grant supports programs that encourage physical fitness and nutrition education among youth.

HONOR ROWS

Honor Rows, presented by M&T Bank and the Governor's Office of Service and Volunteerism, salutes youth who provide outstanding service to our communities.

HOMETOWN HERO

Hometown Hero, presented by Cigna, honors local heroes at every Ravens home game.

SEATS FOR SERVICE

At each home game, the Ravens honor a group of military representatives, first responders veterans or wounded warriors through CSX's Seats for Service program.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK

Community Quarterback, presented in partnership with T. Rowe Price, recognizes individuals who exemplify dedication, leadership and commitment to improving the communities in which they live.

BALTIMORE RAVENS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE (BRLI)

In partnership with T. Rowe Price, the BRLI is a year-long leadership program for promising high school students in Baltimore City and Baltimore County.

RISE TEAM MOM OF THE YEAR

RISE Team Mom of the Year honors mothers and administrators of youth football squads who compile team rosters, handle communication with parents, oversee concession stands, coordinate special events and manage uniforms.

PLAYER ON THE RISE

Player on the RISE awards youth players with special promotions to meet Ravens players, win tickets to a Ravens' game, or watch pre-game warm-ups from the field at M&T Bank Stadium.

TEAM ON THE RISE

Teams on the RISE awards youth teams with gear, discounts and more that help young squads raise their game to the next level.

2019 WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

New Ravens DE Calais Campbell was named the 2019 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. The award, which is presented by Nationwide, is considered one of the league's most prestigious honors and recognizes the NFL player that best demonstrates outstanding community service and excellence on the field. The announcement was made during NFL Honors, a two-hour primetime awards special that aired nationally on FOX on the eve of Super Bowl LIV.

"Calais Campbell's impact extends far beyond the field, into communities throughout Phoenix, Jacksonville and beyond," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "During his 12 seasons in the league, he has been a tremendous role model for the youth he serves through his CRC Foundation and is incredibly deserving of the league's most prestigious honor."

Alongside his mother, Nateal, and seven siblings, Campbell formed the CRC Foundation in 2009 and has engaged in numerous charitable initiatives throughout his 12-year NFL career. The CRC Foundation, named for his late father, Charles, is committed to the enhancement of the community through the teaching of critical life skills to young people, transforming them into empowered and self-aware leaders of the future.

"DURING HIS 12 SEASONS IN THE LEAGUE, HE HAS BEEN A TREMENDOUS ROLE MODEL FOR THE YOUTH HE SERVES THROUGH HIS CRC FOUNDATION AND IS INCREDIBLY DESERVING OF THE LEAGUE'S MOST PRESTIGIOUS HONOR."

— NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL

"My dad passed away when I was 17 years old. It was a hard moment, but he left me with so many life lessons, one being failure is a part of the process. We are all going to fail, but those failures become lessons if we learn from them and never give up. My goal when I give back is to inspire people, to encourage people to believe that dreams are achievable if you put the work in. Everybody, and I mean everybody, can give back. It doesn't matter where you are in your life. Reach back and help someone. It's our duty to help our neighbors. Even if you can only give five minutes to someone in need, give it to them. That one-on-one quality time, that little bit of extra time can make a world of difference. Those five minutes can change a life."

BIRDS KNOW THE SCORE

Ravens fans, we'd like to introduce you to the CatholicU Cardinals. We're less than an hour away and we're proud to call the greater Baltimore-Washington region home.

CatholicU is a leading research university and we make the most of our D.C. location. You'll find us interning at the National Institutes of Health, performing at regional theaters, studying stars at NASA Goddard, taking in the museums, and rooting for our area sports teams. And our residential campus is the largest and greenest in the nation's capital.

We offer a vibrant student-life experience and sponsor 25 Division III teams — including football, one of the oldest programs in the country.

It's a winning combination.

The only bank that loves the Ravens as much as you do.

The Ravens are entering their 25th season, so it's time to get loud, Ravens fans! As your team's official bank, we can't wait to bleed purple right along with you. We're the bank with our name on the stadium and the official team card, so you know we're big fans – just like you.
